

The Fashion Rival Battle

Production & Prompt Guide

A complete, repeatable workflow for a stylish 15-second Pixar-style fashion-comedy — two glamorous divas reach for the last leopard jumpsuit at the exact same second, and a full slow-motion, scarf-whipping, accessory-flying fashion battle erupts in a peaceful boutique.

15 sec · 9:16 vertical · Fashion-action comedy · No dialogue · SFX + score · Seedance 2.0

THE IDEA

One leopard jumpsuit. Two divas. Zero chill.

A calm, upscale boutique. The Glam Aunt (zebra catsuit, blonde bombshell hair) struts in from one side; the Fashion Rival (dark bob, rainbow-leopard dress) glides in from the other. Both spot the very last leopard-print jumpsuit — and grab it at the exact same instant. The lounge music cuts out. A beat of silence. Then an epic fashion-battle score erupts: scarf whips, an accessory machine-gun barrage of sunglasses and clutches, aerial 360° spin poses, a slide across the polished floor, and a final midair grab. The Glam Aunt twists free with the prize and holds the leopard against her zebra — the contrast makes her victory instantly readable.

WORKFLOW AT A GLANCE

01. Lock the cast — Upload the character sheets for both divas — identity must never drift.
02. Protect the zebra rule — The Aunt stays in ZEBRA the whole battle — leopard is the prize, not her outfit.
03. Animate in Seedance 2.0 — Feed both sheets + master prompt for the 15-sec battle.
04. Polish & post — Land the music cut-out, export 9:16, publish the freeze-frame.

CHARACTER REFERENCE SHEETS

Consistency is everything — the same two divas must appear in every frame. Upload both sheets (THE GLAM AUNT + THE FASHION RIVAL) into Seedance 2.0 as strict identity references and keep both women identical in every single shot — no identity drift, no outfit swaps. Only these two women are the focus; a couple of calm neutral background shoppers may exist but never interfere.

The Glam Aunt (The champion (hero)) — Huge blonde bombshell hair, dramatic blue eyeshadow, gold hoop earrings, black-and-white ZEBRA-print catsuit, white sneakers. Moves like a glamorous action queen. Expressions: sassy wink · fabulous grin · sunglasses-lowered smirk · shocked · cool disdain.

The Fashion Rival (The challenger) — Sleek dark bob with flicked ends, smoky makeup, sharply arched brows, glossy red lips, long elegant neck, rainbow-leopard fitted dress, gold hoops, black heels. Expressions: cool disdain · bored and unimpressed · suspicious side-eye · shocked · competitive angry glare · smug victorious smile.

THE ZEBRA VS LEOPARD RULE

[THE COLLISION] Extreme macro on the hanger — both divas grab the last leopard jumpsuit at the exact same instant; it trembles between them, glares sharpening into rivalry.

[THE BATTLE] Mid-fight — slow-mo aerial fashion-fu: scarf whips, an accessory barrage of sunglasses and clutches, a 360° spin pose reaching for the falling jumpsuit.

[THE LEOPARD FINISHER] The Aunt holds the LEOPARD jumpsuit against her ZEBRA catsuit at the mirror — black-and-white stripes against golden spots — as the Rival folds her arms and rolls her eyes.

KEY FRAME · THE COLLISION

[STYLE] Stylized 3D fashion-comedy, 9:16, glossy premium boutique render, high-end Pixar look.

[THE COLLISION] Extreme macro on a single hanger holding the last LEOPARD-PRINT jumpsuit — THE GLAM AUNT (huge blonde bombshell hair, blue eyeshadow, gold hoops, BLACK-AND-WHITE ZEBRA catsuit, white sneakers) grabs it from the left and THE FASHION RIVAL (sleek dark bob, smoky makeup, glossy red lips, rainbow-leopard dress, gold hoops) grabs it from the right at the EXACT same instant; the hanger trembles between them; both glare, bored looks sharpening into lethal fashion rivalry.

[ENVIRONMENT] A calm upscale boutique — elegant racks, mirrors, chic display tables, soft warm lighting; peaceful and premium, no chaos.

[NEGATIVE] No text, no logos, no extra people; the Aunt stays in ZEBRA (never leopard); no identity drift, no distorted faces.

TIMELINE

0:00–0:03 Peaceful shopping — both divas glide in from opposite sides and reach for the last leopard jumpsuit at the same moment. Half a second of suspense.

0:03–0:05 The collision — both grab the hanger at the exact same instant; glares sharpen; the music CUTS OUT, one beat of silence, then the epic battle score erupts.

0:05–0:06.5 Opening strike — the jumpsuit flies free; the Aunt lands and whips a silk scarf in three fast stylish strikes; the Rival stumbles back, shocked but fabulous.

0:06.5–0:08 Accessory barrage — the Rival machine-guns sunglasses and clutches; slow-mo 360° orbit; the Aunt catches a pair of sunglasses midair and lowers them onto her face. Smirk.

0:08–0:10 Aerial fashion-fu — the Aunt vaults over the Rival and spins midair; they grab opposite ends and slide across the polished floor.

0:10–0:12 The leopard finisher — both leap for the jumpsuit midair; the Aunt twists free with it and holds the LEOPARD against her ZEBRA — instant readable contrast.

0:12–0:15 The punchline — at the mirror the Aunt hugs the jumpsuit like a trophy; the Rival rolls her eyes. Freeze-frame with clean negative space up top.

THE 15-SECOND MASTER PROMPT

This is the whole thing — copy it, swap the leopard jumpsuit for any coveted item (the last designer bag, the last pair of heels) and re-cast the two divas, and you have your own fashion-battle series.
